READING PASSAGE 1

You should spend about 20 minutes on Questions 1–13, which are based on Reading Passage 1 below.

Mystery Drawing

Is the drawing of a young Milanese girl really by famous artist Leonardo da Vinci?

On January 30, 1998, an art auction was held in New York City. One drawing was of a pretty girl, but it attracted little attention. The catalogue listed the work as a German drawing done in ink and with coloured chalk, dating back to the early 19th century, with styling borrowed from the much earlier Renaissance period. A New York dealer, Kate Ganz, purchased the picture for $21,850. The price had barely changed almost ten years later when a Canadian collector, Peter Silverman, bought it. The drawing might actually date from the Renaissance, he thought. Ganz herself had mentioned Leonardo da Vinci as an influence on the artist. Silverman wondered whether it was the work of the great Leonardo himself, but discovery of a Da Vinci is truly rare. At the time of Silverman's purchase, it had been more than 75 years since the last authentication of one of the artist's paintings. It had never been recorded that Da Vinci ever made a major work like this, and neither were there any known copies. If this image was an authentic Leonardo, where had it been hiding for 500 years?

Silverman emailed a digital image of the drawing to Martin Kemp, professor of art history at Oxford University and renowned Leonardo scholar. Kemp immediately flew to Zurich, where Silverman kept the drawing in a bank vault. Kemp was excited and began his own investigation. He was aided by Pascal Cotte of Lumière Technology in Paris, who used high resolution multispectral scans which allowed Kemp to study the drawing's different layers. The more Kemp looked, the more he saw what he considered evidence of Leonardo's hand: the beautiful tone of the colours, the precise lines, and the fact that the shaded areas showed distinctive strokes just like Leonardo's. The subject's expression was self-confident but thoughtful. She appeared to be someone growing up too fast, and conveyed Leonardo's belief that a portrait should reveal 'motion of the mind'.

Kemp also needed proof that the portrait had been made during Leonardo's lifetime (1452-1519) and that its historical details fitted the artist's biography. Material analysis strongly suggested that the artist had used calfskin, quite normal for the time, and this was then carbon-dated. Its origin was placed somewhere between 1440 and 1650. Then costume research revealed that the girl belonged specifically to the Milanese court of the 1490s, with its fashion for elaborately bound hair. Leonardo lived in Milan during this time, accepting commissions for portraits of people in the royal court. Stitch marks on the edge of the portrait suggested that it came from a book, possibly the sort, common at the time, that would commemorate a royal marriage.

Kemp's detective work led him to a name, Bianca Sforza. A daughter of the Duke of Milan, she was married in 1496 to Galeazzo Sanseverino, commander of the Milanese troops and a patron of Leonardo's. Tragically, she died a few months later. In 2010 Kemp and Cotte published their findings in a book. Several prominent Leonardo scholars agreed; others were sceptical. The possibility of a high-quality forgery was raised. Doubt centred around the drawing's sudden, almost miraculous appearance. Where had it come from?

Kemp didn't know. Then, quite unexpectedly, a message came from David Wright, professor of art history at the University of South Florida. Having followed the very public dispute, Wright suggested to Kemp, whom he had never met, that his answer might lie in the National Library of Poland in Warsaw, inside a book called the Sforziad. Wright, an expert on Renaissance iconography, described it as a commemorative volume for the marriage of Bianca Sforza, a suitable occasion for a Leonardo portrait.

Kemp and Cotte travelled to Warsaw. Cotte's macrophotography revealed that a page had been removed from the exact place in the Sforziad where a portrait would have been added. The moment arrived when they inserted a copy of Bianca's portrait into the open book. It fitted perfectly. For Kemp, this was the proof. It was a single portrait by Leonardo that had gone into a book and then onto a shelf.

According to Wright, the volume reached Poland in the early 1500s, when a member of the Sforza family married a Polish royal. The page was removed, possibly at the time of the book's rebinding in the 17th or 18th century. The trail grows faint here. What is known is that at some point it was acquired by an Italian man, a specialist in art restoration, and that his widow put it up for sale at auction.

These are amazing times for Leonardo admirers. Recently, London's National Gallery exhibited Leonardo's painting of Jesus Christ holding a globe, a work lost for centuries. In Florence, researchers looking for Leonardo's Battle of Anghiari, last seen in the mid-1500s, are using technology to find out if the painting might be hidden behind a wall in the Palazzo Vecchio, but the issue has not yet been resolved.

Authenticating a centuries-old artwork is seldom an objective process. Ego, personal taste, and fear of legal cases all contribute to the judgement. To reach wider consensus, Kemp sent his latest findings to a number of leading specialists, almost all of whom declined to comment. Agreement 'will take time' concedes Kemp, 'but I have clear confidence in the research we've done. One thing is sure, should the day come when Bianca Sforza's face hangs in a museum as a true Leonardo, everyone will stare.'

Questions 1–7

Complete the notes below.

Choose ONE WORD AND/OR A NUMBER from the passage for each answer.

Write your answers in boxes 1–7 on your answer sheet.

The drawing's discovery and early research

Art dealer Kate Ganz bought a drawing of a girl made using chalk and ink.

Ganz sold the drawing to art collector Peter Silverman.

Silverman suspected the portrait was by Leonardo da Vinci but knew that

- no new Da Vinci work had been found for over 1 ..... years
- no 2 ..... of the portrait were believed to exist.

Martin Kemp believed the drawing may be by Da Vinci because of

- the lines and colours
- the 3 ..... used in the drawing's darker shaded areas
- the 4 ..... on the girl's face.

Proof that the drawing had been done in Da Vinci's lifetime came from

- the age of the 5 ..... used as material
- the style of the girl's clothing and 6 .....
- the kind of 7 ..... the drawing had been taken from.

Questions 8–13

Do the following statements agree with the information given in Reading Passage 1?

In boxes 8–13 on your answer sheet, write

TRUE	if the statement agrees with the information
FALSE	if the statement contradicts the information
NOT GIVEN	if there is no information on this

8 In 2010, there were mixed reactions to Kemp and Cotte's research on the drawing.

9 Kemp contacted Professor David Wright for his advice on the drawing.

10 An Italian art restorer attempted to restore the colour to the drawing.

11 Research has revealed the location of Da Vinci's painting Battle of Anghiari.

12 There has been a refusal by most Da Vinci experts to respond to Kemp's findings.

13 Kemp now doubts whether the drawing was really done by Da Vinci.

Mystery Drawing

01 笔记填空

神秘画作 · 逐题精析

题目要求：每空从原文选取 ONE WORD AND/OR A NUMBER（一个单词和／或一个数字）。

1 75　2 copies　3 strokes　4 expression　5 calfskin　6 hair　7 book

题号	含空题干、翻译与答案	完整定位句与翻译	详细解析与易错点
Silverman suspected the portrait was by Leonardo da Vinci but knew that｜Silverman 怀疑肖像出自达·芬奇，但他知道：
1	答案 75 no new Da Vinci work had been found for over 1 _____ years 已有超过_____年未发现新的达·芬奇作品。	第1段第9句｜上次真迹鉴定的时间 At the time of Silverman's purchase, it had been more than 75 years since the last authentication of one of the artist's paintings. 译：在 Silverman 购入此画时，距离上一次有达·芬奇画作被鉴定为真迹，已经过去了75年多。	over 与 more than 对应 since the last authentication 表示“自上一次真迹鉴定以来”。已有75年多没有新作品获得确认，题干将这一信息概括为 no new... work had been found。over 对应 more than，填75。 years 已在空后提供，只填数字。500 years 指画作可能隐匿的时长；almost ten years 指两次购买的间隔，均不对应“距上次鉴定”。
2	答案 copies no 2 _____ of the portrait were believed to exist. 人们认为这幅肖像没有已知的_____。	第1段第10句｜没有已知摹本 It had never been recorded that Da Vinci ever made a major work like this, and neither were there any known copies. 译：从未有记录显示达·芬奇创作过这样一幅重要作品，也没有任何已知的摹本。	neither 延续前面的否定 前半句说没有创作记录；and neither were there any known copies 接着说“也没有已知摹本”。known copies 对应题干 believed to exist，空格问的是不存在的东西，填 copies（摹本／复制品）。 保留原文复数 -ies，题干的 were 也要求复数。known 是修饰词；填 known copies 会超过一个单词的限制。
Martin Kemp believed the drawing may be by Da Vinci because of｜Martin Kemp 认为画作可能出自达·芬奇，依据包括线条、色彩，以及：
3	答案 strokes the lines and colours the 3 _____ used in the drawing's darker shaded areas 线条与色彩；以及画面较暗的阴影区域中使用的_____。	第2段第5句｜阴影部分的笔触 The more Kemp looked, the more he saw what he considered evidence of Leonardo's hand: the beautiful tone of the colours, the precise lines, and the fact that the shaded areas showed distinctive strokes just like Leonardo's. 译：Kemp 看得越多，就越能发现他认为出自达·芬奇之手的证据：优美的色调、精准的线条，以及阴影区域呈现出的独特笔触，与达·芬奇的笔触十分相似。	把“区域呈现什么”转为“使用什么” 原文 shaded areas showed distinctive strokes 表示“阴影区域呈现出独特笔触”。题干改为 strokes used in... areas，主语与修饰结构改变，所指仍是笔触，故填 strokes。 strokes 在绘画语境中指一笔笔的笔触，保留复数；distinctive 是“独特的”，单独填入缺少名词。lines 和 colours 已在上一条笔记列出。
4	答案 expression the 4 _____ on the girl's face. 女孩脸上的_____。	第2段第6-7句｜表情传达内心 The subject's expression was self-confident but thoughtful. She appeared to be someone growing up too fast, and conveyed Leonardo's belief that a portrait should reveal 'motion of the mind'. 译：画中人物的表情自信，却又若有所思。她看起来像一个过早长大的女孩，传达了达·芬奇的理念：肖像应揭示人物的“内心活动”。	表情体现肖像画的创作理念 subject 在这里指被画的人；the subject's expression 即“画中人物的表情”，对应 the... on the girl's face。下一句说明这种表情为何支持 Kemp 的判断：它呈现了人物的内心活动。 the 后需填名词 expression，保持单数。self-confident 和 thoughtful 是形容词，说明表情的特点；mind 指内心，不能组成题干所需的脸部特征。
Proof that the drawing had been done in Da Vinci's lifetime came from｜支持画作创作于达·芬奇在世时期的证据来自：
5	答案 calfskin the age of the 5 _____ used as material 用作绘画材料的_____的年代。	第3段第2-3句｜材料与碳测年 Material analysis strongly suggested that the artist had used calfskin, quite normal for the time, and this was then carbon-dated. Its origin was placed somewhere between 1440 and 1650. 译：材料分析有力地表明，画家使用了小牛皮，这在当时相当常见；随后研究者对它进行了碳年代测定。其年代被确定在1440年至1650年之间。	this 与 Its 都回指 calfskin 分析先辨认出材料是 calfskin（小牛皮），随后测定该材料的年代。题干的 the age of the... used as material 要求填写“被测年的材料”，所以填 calfskin。 calfskin 作材料名词用，不加 -s；写作一个单词。1440 和1650 是测年范围，空格并未询问年份。该范围与画家的生年1452至卒年1519重叠，单凭它仍不能确认作者。
6	答案 hair the style of the girl's clothing and 6 _____ 女孩服装与_____的样式。	第3段第4-5句｜服饰与发式的年代 Then costume research revealed that the girl belonged specifically to the Milanese court of the 1490s, with its fashion for elaborately bound hair. Leonardo lived in Milan during this time, accepting commissions for portraits of people in the royal court. 译：随后，服饰研究显示，女孩具体属于15世纪90年代的米兰宫廷，当时那里流行精心束起的发式。达·芬奇在这一时期住在米兰，接受为宫廷人物绘制肖像的委托。	服饰细节与画家经历相互吻合 costume 对应 clothing；fashion for elaborately bound hair 指“精心束发的风尚”，对应 the style of... hair。发式帮助确定女孩所处的年代与宫廷，下一句补充画家当时也在那里工作。 and 连接 clothing 与 hair，共同受 the style of 修饰。hair 在此统指头发，用不可数形式；hairs 指一根根头发，不合语境。不能改填原文未出现的 hairstyle。
7	答案 book the kind of 7 _____ the drawing had been taken from. 这幅画原先被取自哪一类_____。	第3段第6句｜边缘针脚与书册来源 Stitch marks on the edge of the portrait suggested that it came from a book, possibly the sort, common at the time, that would commemorate a royal marriage. 译：肖像边缘的针脚痕迹表明，它来自一本书，可能是当时常见的那类纪念王室婚姻的书册。	the kind of 与 the sort 对应 边缘有针脚痕迹，说明画作可能曾被装订在书中；came from a book 对应 had been taken from。the sort 指前面的 book，后面补充“纪念王室婚姻”这一类型，故填 book。 沿用 a book 的单数形式。marks 是判断来源的线索；marriage 是书的纪念主题，都不能填作画作被取出的载体。possibly 保留了对书册类型的推测。

定位按正文第1至第9自然段计，不含标题及导语。

Mystery Drawing

02 事实判断

神秘画作 · 逐题精析

题目要求：与原文一致写 TRUE；被原文反驳写 FALSE；缺少判断所需信息写 NOT GIVEN。

8 TRUE　9 FALSE　10 NOT GIVEN　11 FALSE　12 TRUE　13 FALSE

题号	题干、翻译与答案	完整定位句与翻译	详细解析与易错点
8	答案 TRUE In 2010, there were mixed reactions to Kemp and Cotte's research on the drawing. 2010年，人们对 Kemp 与 Cotte 关于这幅画的研究反应不一。	第4段第4-6句｜赞同与怀疑并存 In 2010 Kemp and Cotte published their findings in a book. Several prominent Leonardo scholars agreed; others were sceptical. The possibility of a high-quality forgery was raised. 译：2010年，Kemp 与 Cotte 将研究结果写成书出版。几位知名的达·芬奇研究学者表示赞同，其他人则持怀疑态度。有人提出，这幅画可能是一件高水平的赝品。	mixed reactions 指不同人反应不一 Several... agreed 表示一些学者赞同；others were sceptical 表示另一些学者怀疑。两种反应同时出现，直接支持 mixed reactions，故判 TRUE。提出伪作的可能性，进一步具体化了怀疑。 mixed 没有要求同一个人既支持又反对，也不要求双方人数相同。2010 对应研究成果出版的时间，随后的反应承接这些成果。
9	答案 FALSE Kemp contacted Professor David Wright for his advice on the drawing. Kemp 联系了 David Wright 教授，向他寻求关于这幅画的建议。	第5段第2-3句｜Wright 主动提供线索 Then, quite unexpectedly, a message came from David Wright, professor of art history at the University of South Florida. Having followed the very public dispute, Wright suggested to Kemp, whom he had never met, that his answer might lie in the National Library of Poland in Warsaw, inside a book called the Sforziad. 译：随后，南佛罗里达大学艺术史教授 David Wright 出人意料地发来了一条消息。Wright 一直关注这场公开争论，便向从未谋面的 Kemp 建议：他要找的答案可能就在华沙的波兰国家图书馆里，一本名为《Sforziad》的书中。	主动联系的方向被调换了 原文顺序是：Wright 关注争论，随后向 Kemp 发来消息并给出建议。a message came from Wright 明确消息来自 Wright；quite unexpectedly 说明这对 Kemp 而言很意外。 题干却说 Kemp 主动联系 Wright 求助，将这次接触的发起者写反，因此为 FALSE。whom he had never met 补充两人此前未见过面；判断的主要证据仍是消息的来向与建议的发起者。
10	答案 NOT GIVEN An Italian art restorer attempted to restore the colour to the drawing. 一位意大利艺术品修复师曾试图修复这幅画的色彩。	第7段第4句｜持有者身份与拍卖 What is known is that at some point it was acquired by an Italian man, a specialist in art restoration, and that his widow put it up for sale at auction. 译：已知的是，这幅画曾在某个时候被一名意大利男子购得，他是艺术品修复方面的专家；后来，他的遗孀将画作送交拍卖。	职业身份不能推出具体修复行为 a specialist in art restoration 对应 an art restorer，只确认这位持有者的身份。原文明确的动作是 acquired（购得）以及遗孀 put it up for sale（拿去出售）。 attempted to restore the colour 额外要求证明：他曾尝试修复这幅画，而且涉及色彩。文中没有交代这项行为，也没有说他从未修复。因此既无法确认，也无反驳证据，判 NOT GIVEN。
11	答案 FALSE Research has revealed the location of Da Vinci's painting Battle of Anghiari. 研究已经揭示了达·芬奇画作《安吉亚里之战》的所在位置。	第8段第3句｜仍在查证的墙后藏画 In Florence, researchers looking for Leonardo's Battle of Anghiari, last seen in the mid-1500s, are using technology to find out if the painting might be hidden behind a wall in the Palazzo Vecchio, but the issue has not yet been resolved. 译：在佛罗伦萨，研究者正在寻找达·芬奇的《安吉亚里之战》；这幅画最后一次被见到是在16世纪中叶。他们利用技术，试图查明它是否可能藏在旧宫的一堵墙后，但这一问题尚未得到解决。	研究正在进行，位置尚未确定 are using technology to find out if 表示仍在调查；might be hidden 给出可能位置；but... has not yet been resolved 明确说明尚无确定结论。题干的 has revealed 却声称位置已经揭晓，两者冲突，判 FALSE。 墙后是待验证的假设，不能因出现具体地点便认定已经找到。原文已明确说明研究未解决问题，因此证据足以反驳题干，不能判 NOT GIVEN。
12	答案 TRUE There has been a refusal by most Da Vinci experts to respond to Kemp's findings. 大多数达·芬奇专家拒绝回应 Kemp 的研究发现。	第9段第3句｜多数受邀专家拒绝置评 To reach wider consensus, Kemp sent his latest findings to a number of leading specialists, almost all of whom declined to comment. 译：为取得更广泛的共识，Kemp 将最新研究发现发给了一批顶尖专家，其中几乎所有人都拒绝发表评论。	declined to comment 对应拒绝回应 whom 回指 Kemp 联系的那批 leading specialists。almost all of whom 表示“其中几乎所有人”，足以支持题干在这次征询语境中的 most；declined to comment 对应 a refusal... to respond，故判 TRUE。 拒绝置评描述专家的回应行为，不能进一步推出他们认定画作是赝品。原文范围是收到 Kemp 最新发现的专家，也无需扩大成全球全部达·芬奇研究者。
13	答案 FALSE Kemp now doubts whether the drawing was really done by Da Vinci. Kemp 现在怀疑这幅画是否真的出自达·芬奇之手。	第9段末两句｜仍对研究充满信心 Agreement 'will take time' concedes Kemp, 'but I have clear confidence in the research we've done. One thing is sure, should the day come when Bianca Sforza's face hangs in a museum as a true Leonardo, everyone will stare.' 译：Kemp 承认，达成一致“需要时间”，但他表示：“我对我们已经完成的研究有明确的信心。有一点可以确定：倘若有一天，Bianca Sforza 的肖像作为达·芬奇真迹挂在博物馆里，所有人都会驻足凝视。”	他人的保留与 Kemp 的信心要分开 Agreement will take time 指学界形成共识需要时间。but 随后转向 Kemp 自己的态度：I have clear confidence 表明他仍然相信研究。题干 now doubts 把信心改成了怀疑，与原文相反，判 FALSE。 concedes（承认）承接的是“共识尚需时间”，并未表示他承认鉴定错误。前文其他学者的 sceptical，以及不愿评论的态度，也都不能移到 Kemp 身上。

第9题核对“谁联系谁”；第10题核对“身份是否足以证明行为”；第11题核对“可能与已经”；第12题核对数量与回应行为；第13题核对态度所属的人。
